RHYTHM

FORWARD

rhythm is the enlightenment of a drab existence, it surges

wherever human creatures are moving.

our whole purpose in life is enmeshed in rhythm

the movement of feet in an empty hall, the patterns woven by busy hands

like the stars that sweep across the sky we light up our niche in the world with a

acquired through the years.

as the tools and forces of men's labor rhythmically build a new symphony of education

. . . likewise do we rhythmically build the future.

Look to the new school!

See the rasping saw,

the pounding hammers

the humming drill

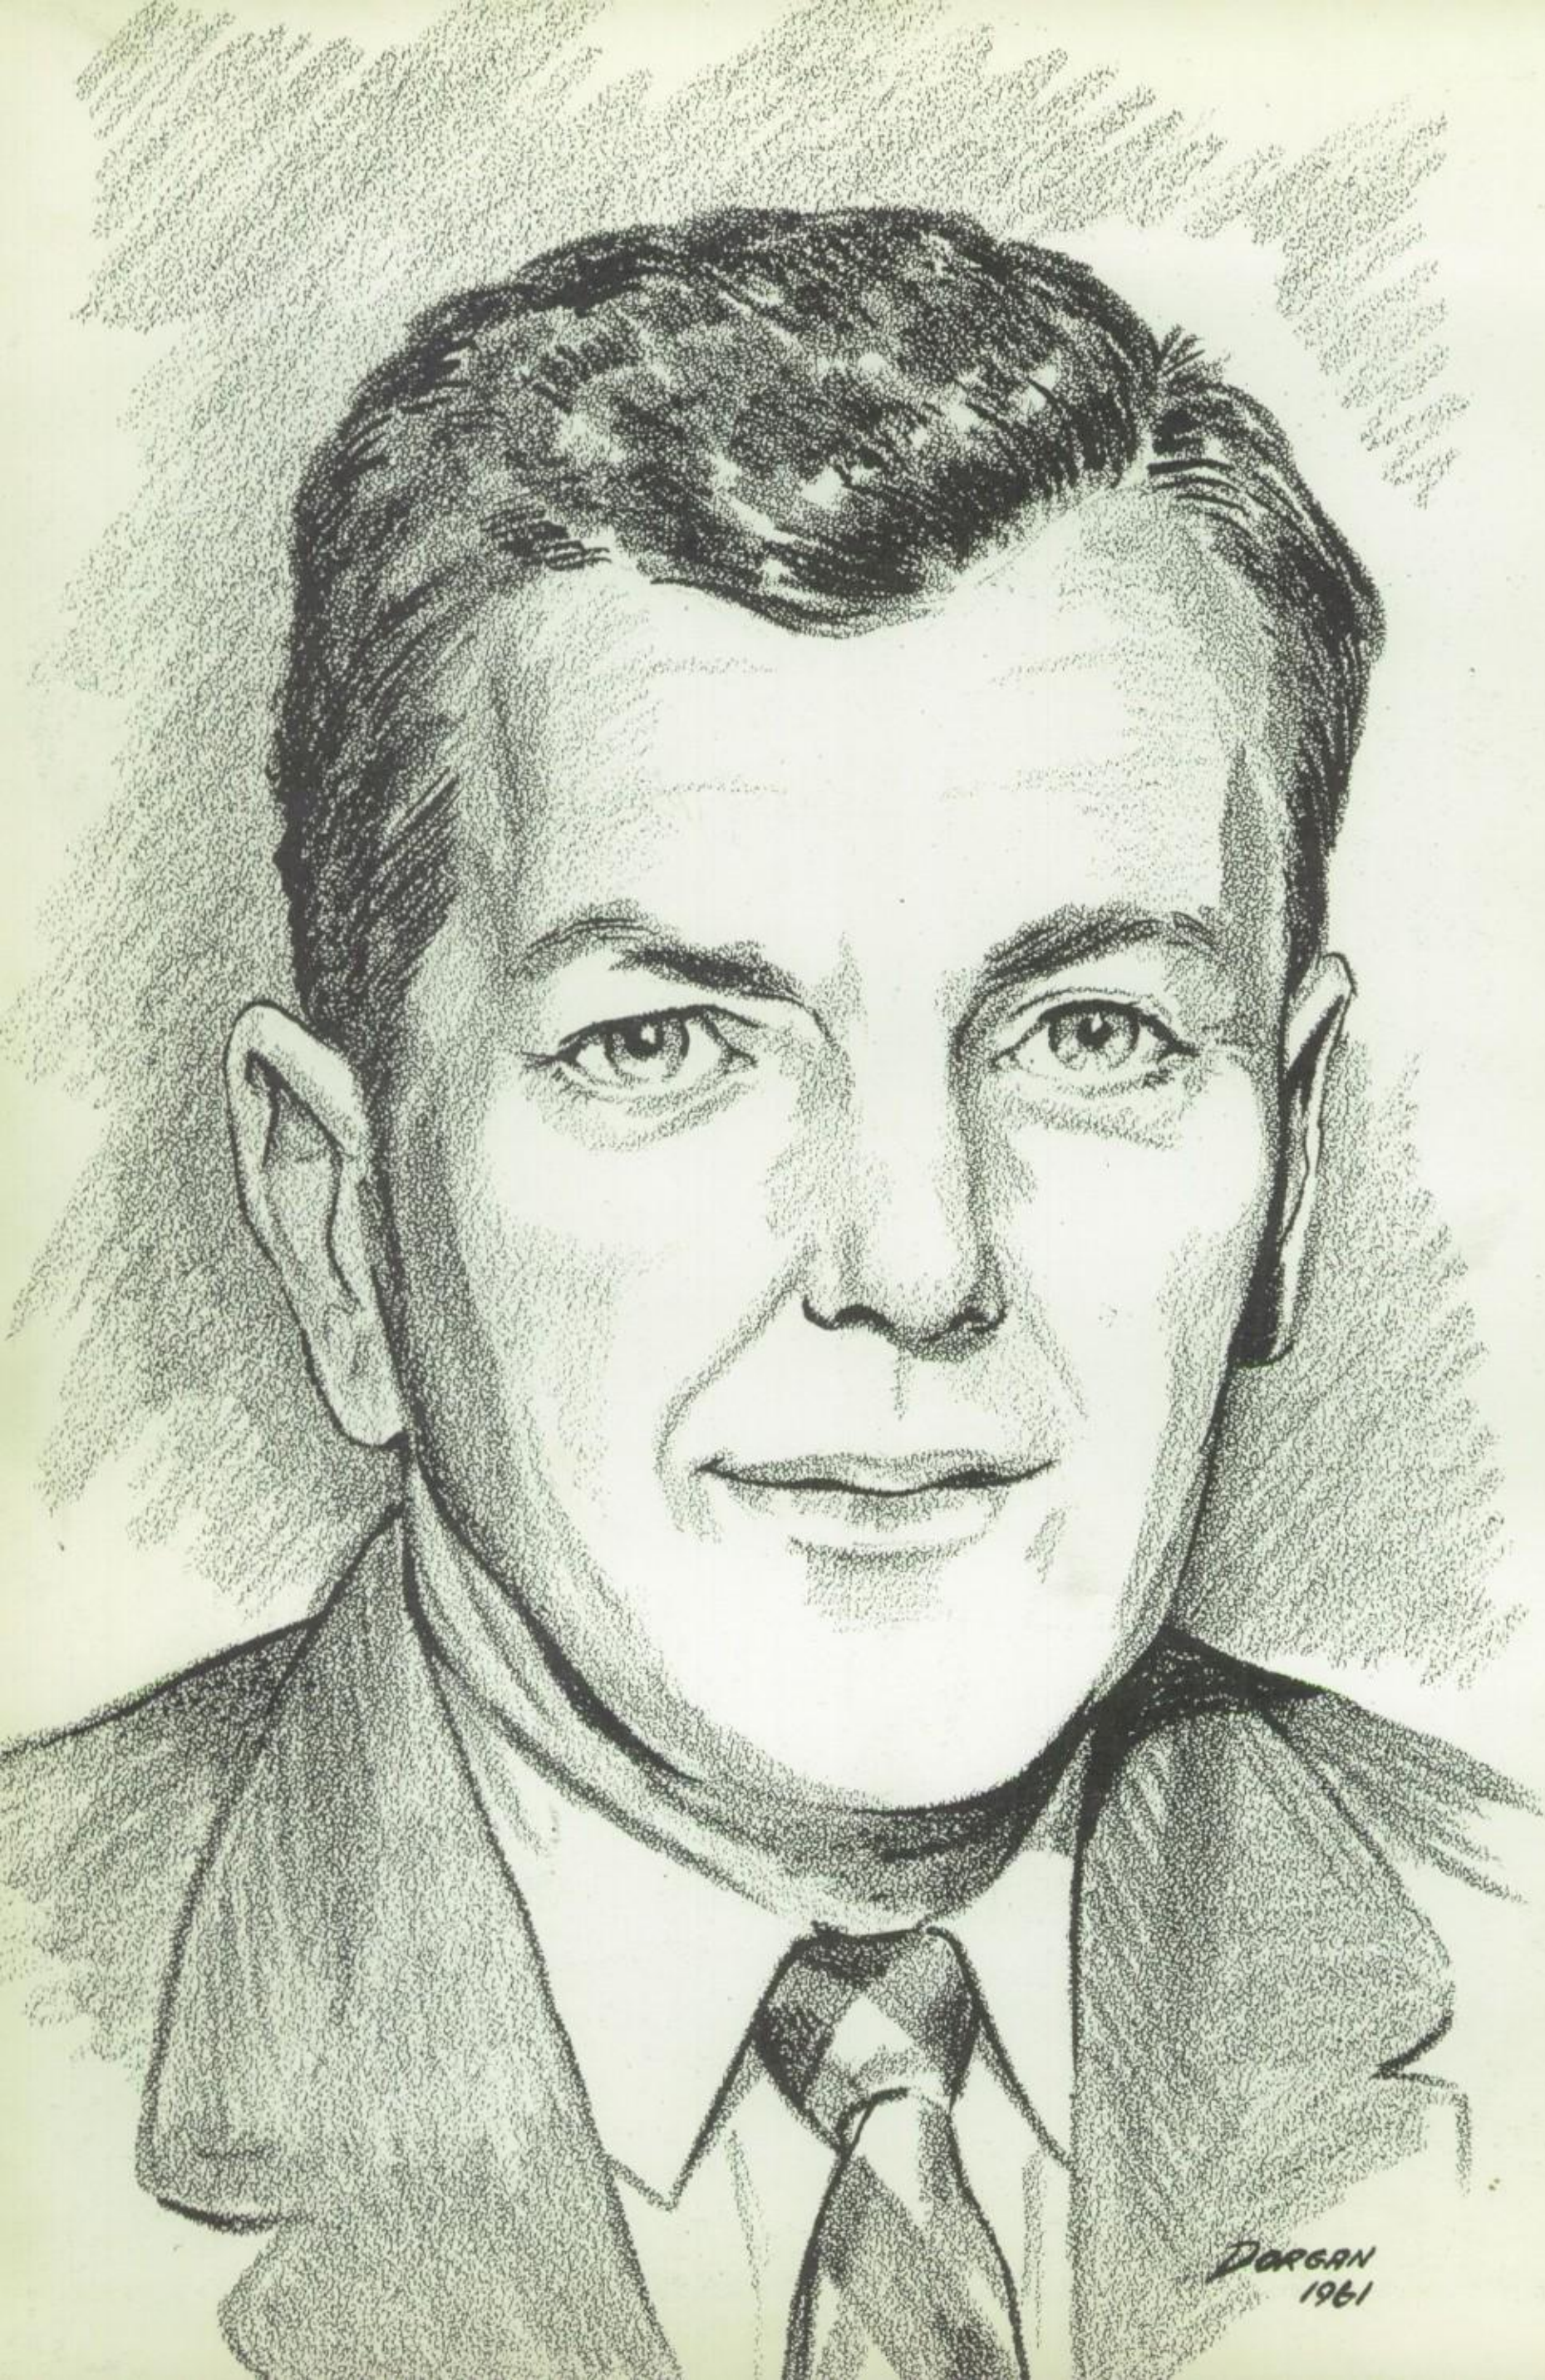

the throbbing motors

rhythm has built our school and here we will furnish the greatest rhythm of all . . .

Corona

Just as a year book has a theme behind its every page, so must a school have a planning force behind its construction. Thirty-eight years ago the people of Corona built a new high school. This school exemplified the pride and promise of a new educational future. Corona High School served the community well in many ways. Meanwhile conscientious citizens recognized the fact that this school would not always serve the needs of the growing town and so they took it upon themselves to set in motion the ideas that would someday build the very school we now attend. For their loyal service and the many hours spent in fulfilling the ideas of those farseeing citizens, we humbly dedicate this yearbook to the school board and their leader Dr. Merrihew.

Jessie,

Well another school year has come to an end and this is the last year I guess. We've sure had fun huh? It's been alot of fun knowing all these years you are a great person, and you have the nicest personality. I remember that year you came home from up north when you were nice and slim. you were so excited you could hardly tell me about the good time you had up there. When you finally manage to tell me about your new flame or should I say old flame? Remember those times I ditched school and stay at your little apartment? We had fun, trying on bathingsuits, hearing records, and telling dirty jokes remember and you told me all about R----- and how much you still like Herb. I hope we will be good friends always, and Herb suck in the future. May all your troubles be little ones and may all your good dreams come true. Keep that nice galgate smile, its really charming. Don't forget to remember me long years after you are married and send me a picture of the poor guy and little Henry, Dickie, Georgie? ok? ha! ha! ha! Jess go to summer school ok? and later on you'll be glad you did. I'm only sorry about you know what. Please go to summer school and you'll be glad you did. I hope we have alot of fun at Disneyland and hope there's alot of baby's we can congratulate. Be a good kid and keep plugging. Don't ever give up, what ever you do. Lots of success in the future. It was nice having you in some of my classes this year. We had alot of fun. Hope our friendship will last through out the years.

. . . And so the annual is at rest, the rhythm in its planning has ceased, the ideas of its makers have been sewn together for all to see, their labor has ended. To these noble people, the book which you hold signifies a creative chapter in their lives. I say creative because each has contributed something, each has applied his talent in molding a book of memories for you. We also have our memories and I would like to share them with you. I shall never forget these people or the many hours spent with them in room J-8. For in this room some of the wildest "goings on" in school took place . . . like the time that Sandy pretended that Mr. Pauly was in the closet and knocked on the door whenever someone came to see him. How can I forget Sharon's howling about pictures and never getting the right sizes or Barbra's "darn this typewriter". Then there was Joanie's "late bus" and Judy's "when's Rudy going to bring my cow?" Sherry was a real good sport when we teased her about her "Tuesday morning appearance" and Frank's "is the annual in so I can sleep tonight?" Of course there was Kristin's almost leaving the big sisters out of the senior index and David's cracks about the captions the girls thought up. Gary always seemed to be teasing the girls, poor things, and finally, right at the end Lin's big goof and the mystery of the disappearing pictures. But we had fun as we worked and this made it even more rewarding. I owe much to many people. To Mr. Pauly goes my humblest gratitude for he made "impossible things" possible. Thanks also to Rudy, the lamb, who always came through in the end. But the greatest thanks of all goes to the staff for without them I couldn't have kept my promise, the one I made to you upon election as editor, to bring you the "best darn annual this school has ever had." But I could go on and on and as the rhythm borne into this annual must cease as the last page is turned so must I . . . and so . . . here it is . . . Coronal 1961. I am proud of this annual, proud of those who made it possible, and prouder yet to have been its editor. Thank you.

Jessie,
It's been real nice knowing you this year and having you as a friend. I've enjoyed working with you in the cafeteria at the beginning of the year. I think that you're real sweet and cute and a lot of fun. Stay sweet in the future. I love you!

Thank - you!
Cheri

Well Jessie,
I sure hope you get to graduate. If you don't that pretty bad! I sure am glad you were in my Spanish class this year and that I saw you. Remember? Well good luck in the future Jessie in everything you attempt to do. And Jessie now is your chance to start over and forget the past and I think you will accomplish a lot in your life time. Keep the smile on your face.

at last!

Jessie,

Well it's the end of a fine school year. I hate to leave everything, but anyway I know that if I would have stayed I'd probably ditch all the time. Hope you have a nice summer. I hope that not only because we are departing that we'll lose friendship. Good luck always.

Jessie

It's really been nice knowing you
these past years, &
hope we will remain friends always. Lots of luck in the future years. And I'm sure you won't have a hard time
finding a boyfriend.
But don't rush.
There's plenty around.
